

Learning Module Three

Your Text Books for these assignments are the 66-books of the Holy Bible. It is recommended that you purchase a study Bible. The Ryrie Study Bible is an excellent Bible for seminary students. You will find that the Internet is a priceless tool as you research specific information for the following assignments. Completion of these detailed research assignments will fulfill many of the requirements for award of your Degree.

Important instructions:

It is possible for some students to complete Learning Modules and Research Papers in a period of months instead of years, through focused study and concentration of time. However, there is NO time limitation and you are encouraged to work at your own pace. What some may take 4-years or more to accomplish can be accomplished in just months of focused effort by others.

As you complete each assignment, print it and save it in a loose-leaf binder. When all assignments are completed, send the binder, with the assignments enclosed, to your Northwestern Theological Seminary Branch. You will be graded based on content and organization. * Be sure to keep a personal copy for your own records.

Assignments to improve your knowledge of the Bible:

Your weak areas are suggested by your Bible Book Evaluation, in which you stated that you possess only a FAIR knowledge at present: You will be assessed again at course completion and you will see how much your Bible knowledge has improved.

Write a report on each of the books of the Old and New Testaments for which you have assessed that you currently have only a FAIR knowledge, Through Your Bible Book Knowledge Evaluation that you recently completed and forwarded to the seminary.

 Any books for which you have already studied and written a report on during completion of the other assignments of this Learning Module, do not have to be repeated again in this assignment.

11. Read each of the books for which you stated you have only a FAIR knowledge and write a report on each book. Your report should include an introduction that names the author, time period and geographical area where the accounts take place. Each report should show the following:
 - A. Introduction: In general, describe an overview summary of the Bible book that you are reporting on.
 - B. Body: Explain in detail what The Lord taught you as you read and studied the Bible book that you are reporting on.
 - C. Conclusion: What did the Lord teach you in the Bible book, that you can apply to your life and, or ministry.

Reports may be from just Three, to Five pages each.

May you be blessed as you are taught by the anointing of the Holy Spirit as He speaks to you from His Divine and Holy Word. Receive your blessing, as you become saturated in His powerful and living WORD.
